

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

This research has describe the factors students speaking performance on descriptive text at class eighth of Islamic Junior High School 2 West Pasaman. This research conducted to describe how student's speaking performance on descriptive text and to find out the dominant factor that effect student's speaking performance. Based on the finding of this research, it can be explained as follows:

1. Students' speaing performance at class eight of state Islamic Junior High School was low. Moreover, gesture and movement is the lowest score, and the highest score based on the aspects of speaking performance is thesis statement.
2. The dominant factor that effect students' speaking performance at Class eight of State Islamic Junior High School is affective factor.

B. Suggestions

Based on conclusion above, the writer would like to offer some suggestion which hopefully may be useful in the future. The suggestions are follows:

1. The writer suggest to the teacher at State Islamic Junior High School to know the factors affecting students' speaking performance, in order to improve the performance the students.
2. the writer wishes to other teachers and candidats of teacher who want tu use technique in teaching speaking to have deeper knowledge to achieve the goal of teaching and learning process. Especially speaking performance. To understand about it, the teacher should read more and following the training dealing with their proficiency.

3. The writer wishes to the next researchers who are interested to do a study about this research to make it more valuable and useful for the readers, especially about how to have knowledge about students' speaking performance.
4. The writer wishes to te government and educational institution to hold training to English teacher to improve their knowledge in speaking performance.
5. Finally, the writer also aware this thesis still has some weaknesses that need criticism, comments and suggestion. So, the writer hopes some critics, comment, and corrections which will improve the writer's work and understanding.