

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

The purpose of the research is to identify the students writing skill on recount and narrative texts related to the components of writing and it is also conducted to identify the student's skill in writing recount and narrative texts related to the generic structures.

Based on the finding of this research, it can be concluded that students writing skill in recount and narrative texts are fair and the components of writing that haven't mastered by the students'. Meanwhile, the students' did not master the generic structure of recount text, and they stood at beginning stage or poor of writing generic structure of recount text. They have been wrote mistakes in orientation and events. It means that based on the students writing result, the researcher found that students at class X Social Science of State Senior High School 9 Padang can write recount and narrative paragraph, but it was not too good and they must improve their writing skill.

B. Suggestions

Based on the conclusion above, there are some suggestions for English teachers that in achieving the students' success in learning English. The teacher should be able to create good atmosphere while teaching writing in the classroom and also she/he should be able to find out effective techniques and strategies to teach writing. It is suggested for the English teacher could help the students to practice the use of language in written form. So, the students will be more interested in learning English especially in writing.

